

TIGER TALES

Homecoming at Lewiston is full of many wonderful traditions. This year four students were nominated for Tiger royalty: Daniel Gonzalez, Levi Meybrunn, Dana Christen, and Shayln Salts! One tradition we have each year is the voting for homecoming queen and king! Many adorable kindergarteners got the honor of joining last year's queen and king, Payton Bledsaw and Ryan Hunt, in the crowning of Shalyn Salts and Daniel Gonzalez as 2019's tiger

In Reading and Language Arts in the middle school grades, they have been working on reading a novel. Seventh grade is reading "The Hobbit" and "Anne Frank." The class was divided up to cover the two novels. Eighth grade is reading "The Seer of Shadows". In December the eighth grade will also read the novel "A Christmas Carol". The middle school is also writing narrative essays.

With Fall sports ending, comes Winter sports starting! That's right it's basketball season! Make sure you tigers go out for basketball so we can rule the court!

HALLOWEEN

Elsa, Wonder Woman, cupcakes, butterflies, witches, and the Hulk? OH MY!

Lewiston elementary students shone brightly at the annual Tiger Spook Parade!

Tiger Football Parents Night

On October 25th's game, the Lewiston football players recognized the people who got them where they are, their parents. Pictured above, is Daniel and Abel Gonzalez with their family. To the right is Levi Meybrunn with his family.
