Get to Know Mrs. Liberty

She has been at Lewiston for 19 years. She likes that the classes are small and teachers can get to know all the students. She believes, “A small school can help students more academically than maybe a larger school, where a student may feel that they are just a number.” Mrs. Liberty likes all sports. She has read the Fight to flourish, by Jennie Lusko, and now reading Take back your life by Levi Lusko. “He also wrote, Through the eyes of a lion, which is a really good book to read too.”
